

PUBLIC RECORDS POLICY
for
THE TENNESSEE STATE MUSEUM and
THE DOUGLAS HENRY STATE MUSEUM COMMISSION

Amended July 10, 2017

Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-503(g), the following Public Records Policy for the Tennessee State Museum and the Douglas Henry State Museum Commission is hereby adopted by the Douglas Henry State Museum Commission to provide economical and efficient access to public records as provided under the Tennessee Public Records Act, Tenn. Code Ann. §§ 10-7-503 et seq. (“TRPA”).

The TPRA provides that all state, county and municipal records shall, at all times during business hours, be open for personal inspection by any citizen of this state, and those in charge of the records shall not refuse such right of inspection to any citizen unless otherwise provided by state law. Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-503(a)(2)(A). Accordingly, the public records of the Tennessee State Museum and the Douglas Henry State Museum Commission are presumed to be open for inspection unless otherwise provided by state law.

Personnel of the Tennessee State Museum shall timely and efficiently provide access and assistance to Tennessee citizens requesting to view or receive copies of public records. No provisions of this Policy shall be used to hinder access to open public records. However, the integrity and organization of public records, as well as the efficient and safe operation of the Tennessee State Museum shall be protected as provided by current law. Concerns about this Policy should be addressed to the Public Records Request Coordinator for the Tennessee State Museum and the Douglas Henry State Museum Commission.

This Policy is available for inspection and duplication at the Tennessee State Museum and is posted online at <http://www.tnmuseum.org>. This Policy shall be reviewed as needed, but no less frequently than every two years.

This Policy shall be applied consistently throughout the various departments and divisions of the Tennessee State Museum.

2. If not practicable to promptly provide requested records because additional time is necessary to determine whether the requested records exist; to search for, retrieve, or otherwise gain access to records; to determine whether the records are subject to inspection; to redact records; or for other similar reasons, then the records custodian shall inform the PRRC, who shall, within seven (7) business days from the PRRC's receipt of the request, send the requestor a Public Records Request Response pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-503(a)(2)(B)(iii).
3. If a records custodian reasonably determines that production of records should be in installments, the records custodian shall inform the PRRC, who shall, within seven (7) business days from the PRRC's receipt of the request, send the requestor a Public Records Request Response informing the requestor that the production of records will be in installments and that a records production schedule will be provided as expeditiously as practicable.
4. If a records custodian determines that a public records request should be denied because of an applicable exemption, the records custodian shall inform the PRRC, who shall, within seven (7) business days from the PRRC's receipt of the request, deny the request in writing and include the basis for such denial, pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-503(a)(2)(B)(ii).
5. If a records custodian discovers public records responsive to a records request were omitted in a production, the records custodian shall notify the PRRC, who shall contact the requestor concerning the omitted documents and produce those public records as quickly as practicable.

C. Redaction

1. If a record contains confidential information or information that is not open for public inspection, the records custodian shall prepare a redacted copy prior to providing access.
2. Whenever a redacted record is provided, a records custodian should provide the requestor with the basis for redaction, which shall be general in nature and not disclose confidential information. A records custodian is otherwise not required to provide any sort of privilege log.

D. Inspection of Records

1. There shall be no charge for inspection of public records that are subject to inspection under the TPRA.
2. Inspection of records shall take place at the offices of the Tennessee State Museum, James K. Polk Building, Level B, 505 Deaderick Street, Nashville, TN. The location for inspection of records within the offices of the Tennessee State Museum shall be determined either by the PRRC or the appropriate records custodian.

Code Ann. § 10-7-503(a)(7)(C)(i), upon a request for copies of records, the Tennessee State Museum and the Douglas Henry State Museum Commission shall assess fees for the copying and labor based on the most current version of the "Schedule of Reasonable Charges" issued by the Office

4. The Executive Director may waive or reduce fees if the fees total less than ten dollars ($10.00).
5. The Executive Director of the Tennessee State Museum may waive or reduce any part of the fees calculated under this Policy upon a submission of a written request for waiver or reduction. Any decision to waive or reduce the fees is in the sole discretion of the Executive Director, is not subject to judicial review, and does not establish any precedent.
6. Payment is to be made by personal check, cashier's check, or money order made payable to the State of Tennessee and delivered to the Tennessee State Museum.
7. Payment in advance is required for all requests for copies of records.
